During my process of acquiring permanent residency, there were a few changes that happened, and CCIRC guided me very well through those changes. And best of all, all interaction happened over the internet. I think that is a big advantage. It was great doing business with CCIRC. My special thanks to Christina and Mayada.

I cannot thank you enough for all the help your firm has provided me in realizing this achievement.

I first contacted your firm on November 2002. I had my doubts at first but after reading the comments from other clients on your webpage I decided to engage your services. I am glad I did. In just 16 months I obtained my immigration visa.

The expert advise your firm provided me during the entire process was of great value. Specially that in preparation of my selection interview. With that, I was able to present my credentials in a well organized manner, making a strong case with the immigration official. As a result, I was able to obtain my selection certificate on the spot.

I was gladly impressed with the prompt replies to all my questions and e-mails and the genuine professionalism all your colleagues demonstrated in handling my case. Please extend my most sincere thanks to all your team, particularly to Ms. Jihane Gharzouzi and Ms. Mayada Jamil. They are an extraordinary asset to your organization.

Thanks again and best regards.

Sincerely
V.S.

Dear all CCIRC Staff,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for the high standard services you provide to me throughout the whole immigration process. Since I signed the contract with you things goes fast and smoothly. You helped me prepare all the needed documents, rewrote my resume, initiated job search, answered all emails, telephone calls in a professional and friendly way.

I would like to mention Christina Benette who communicated with me at the initial stages of the process. She has been of great assistance and support till she submitted the case to Mayada Jamil who continued with the same professionalism leading me from a successful stage to another till I finally got the visa with interview waiver. I would like also to thanks all staff members who contributed in leading my case to success.

Your strong support went beyond visa issuance. It extended to mailing the passport after stamping the visa. When I informed Mayada of delay, she contacted the visa office to check and she even changed some work chains to secure receiving passports in timing manner. I appreciate that a lot. It shows care and professionalism. I am really lucky to have you as my consultants, knowing that many applicants are having hard times with their representatives.

Your website has been a good help for me. The information it encompasses provides answers to many questions and worries immigrants may encounter.

I confidently, recommend Colin R Singer to people intending to immigrate to Canada and your website to people looking for immigration information. I have already given your address to many friends and family members.

Thank you very much
Keep up the good professionalism.

Yours Faithfully

I would like to commend the services provided by the staff of CCIRC in assisting me towards successfully obtaining my Canadian immigrant visa. I worked with a professional group of people who were prompt, courteous, and kept me up to date with the laws and options available to me as my application process progressed. The internet-based communications and correspondence were efficient despite the long distance between us. Even though my immigration process went through some hurdles caused by changes in the Canadian laws during the application period, I was constantly provided with professional advice and services ultimately culminating in the successful approval of my application. I am very appreciative of the services provided and would recommend other applicants to seriously consider Colin Singer and his staff for legal assistance with their immigration application.

Thanks
