5. In the event that a decision is rendered by the Quebec immigration processing office refusing or returning the Quebec application which results from a failure by the attorney to respect the Attorney's duties in this agreement and the Attorney is unable to overturn such decision, and save and except for i) a medical or security inadmissibility; ii) an unfavourable modification to the current pass-mark, the current demand list or selection criteria or an unfavourable modification of immigration policy which occurs subsequent to the date of this agreement; iii) failure by the Client to adhere to all of the terms and conditions of this agreement, iv) receipt by the Client of an invitation to apply for permanent residence under the Express Entry system or v) if the Client withdraws the application or terminates the mandate, the Attorney undertakes to provide a FULL REFUND to the Client of the fees paid by the Client to the Attorney, excluding processing fees levied by the government of Canada. Any refund due to the Client is restricted to counsel fees received by the Attorney.

6. The Client expressly acknowledges that the permanent residence project described herein is dependent on the Client a) meeting all government requirements and submitting a completed application to the Quebec immigration processing office; b) submitting an application for Expression of Interest to the Express Entry Pool; c) receiving an invitation to apply for permanent residence and d) submitting a completed application to the immigration processing office within required delays, before applicable quotas are reached. The Attorney agrees to provide services to the Client, as described in this agreement on a best efforts' basis for a period of up to Twenty-Four (24) months from the date the Attorney signs this agreement. The Client acknowledges that securing a qualified sponsoring employer may be an essential condition to qualify for admission to Canada under current rules. This agreement does not constitute any guarantee that a qualified sponsoring employer will materialize and/or that visa(s) will be obtained for the Client.

7. The initial fee paid in virtue of section 1 (a) of this agreement shall be made to the order of and retained by Colin R. Singer, Attorney IN TRUST until release by the Attorney of the application materials and detailed instructions to the Client and said sum shall thereafter be disbursed to the CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION RESOURCE CENTER (CCIRC) INC. Subsequent sums paid in virtue of sections 1(b), 1(c) and 1(d) of this agreement shall be made to the order of Colin R. Singer, Attorney IN TRUST and upon receipt shall be disbursed to the CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION RESOURCE CENTER (CCIRC) INC.

8. The Attorney shall at all time preserve the confidences and personal information of the Client and shall treat such information as a privileged Attorney-Client communication.

9. Notwithstanding that the Client may ultimately elect to settle anywhere in Canada, this contract shall be governed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec.

10. For the purposes of this agreement and until written notification to the contrary, the addresses of each party are the ones contained in this agreement. If a party omits to notify the other party of an address change, it will have deemed to elect domicile at the office of the clerk of the Superior Court of Montreal up until the time it advises the other party of its new address in writing.

11. This contract shall consist of two duly executed copies all of which shall be equally valid and a copy of which shall be kept by each of the parties hereto.

12. The parties hereto expressly agree that this agreement be written in the English language.
Les parties aux présentes conviennent expressément que cette convention soit rédigée en anglais.
